2. Nature of the Platform

QSI is a human–system alignment framework integrating consciousness, culture, and design. Its tools and reports are intended to provide guidance, insight, and coherence-based optimization for individuals, organizations, and projects.

QSI does not offer medical, financial, or legal advice, and any personal or professional decisions made based on QSI recommendations remain the sole responsibility of the user.

3. Data Privacy and Confidentiality

6. Project and Vision Submissions

When users submit project or vision details to QSI (via Smart Infrastructure or Vision Space), they agree that:

- QSI may review and evaluate the submission for coherence and alignment.
- Intellectual property of the submission remains with the user unless a partnership agreement is formally signed.
- QSI reserves the right to reject, refine, or propose modifications to submitted ideas to maintain systemic coherence.
